

MARGARET RIVER

Ray Jordan, The West Australian, Fresh — 5th March 2009

“... the classy Margaret River Clairault cabernet merlot, a stylish expression of this blend. Clairault also features in the whites with a surprisingly good Riesling. Surprising in that Riesling is not normally associated with Margaret River, though there are some quite nice examples. This is pretty good...”

88/100

Clairault Estate Riesling 2008

“Fragrant aromas with a palate that is tightly wound with a persistent mineral thread. Palate is slightly muted but sustained with a nice acid. Will cellar in the short term.”

92/100

Clairault Cabernet Merlot 2005

“The added flesh and aromas of merlot are immediately apparent in this very tidy blend. Leafy and cool on the opening with deeper dark fruits lurking in an elegant and long palate. Has some impressive structure in there to handle a few years in the cellar.”
