

MARGARET RIVER

Clairault Margaret River Chardonnay 2009 Friday, Nov 12 2010 By Gary Walsh

Not to be confused with the estate range, although this is primarily from estate grown grapes. Watch out for the 2007 Cabernet when it's released – mighty good wine.

Touch of garlic reduction and then into light tropical fruit and white peach cut with bright n juicy citrus. It's lively and fresh with a good acid cut and a long tangy grapefruit finish. Drinks beautifully. Fine value.
