MARGARET RIVER

Huon Hooke—Sydney Morning Herald—7th April 2009

WINE OF THE WEEK

95/100

Clairault Sauvignon Blanc 2008

“Clairault is one of Margaret River’s big improvers. Across the range, its wines show well in my tastings and this won a gold medal at last years Royal Adelaide Wine Show. Pale in colour, it has a powerful aroma of gooseberries and citrus fruits, fresh and vital in the mouth, with echoes of lemon zest on the tongue. Very lively on the palate, it has bracingly crisp acidity adding to its serious length and drive. A lick of sweetness is well within the bounds of balance. A benchmark sauvignon blanc, 12.5 per cent alcohol and screwcapped. 95/100. Food: Fresh goat’s cheese of witlof, caprese salad, feta in garlic olive oil; most salads and vegetable dishes.”
